Great for using up stash yarn, I actually used a pack that came free with a magazine for this one.

✓ You will need:
✓ 150-200g DK Yarn
✓ 4mm Crochet Hook
✓ Sewing up needle

- CH 72 and join in a SS (make sure the chain is not twisted at all)
- CH 3 and work a TR into the next 2 stitches. Skip a stitch, CH 1 and work a TR into the next 3. Repeat from  SK1, CH1 and SS to join. (You should have 18 clusters of TR's and 18 spaces)
- SS 2 stitches to the first CH space, CH 3 and work 2 x TR's into that same space. (Jump to the next CH space and work 3 x TR's) repeat what's in-between the brackets another 6 times so you have 8 clusters in total. Into the next CH space work 3 x TR's, 3 x CH and 3 x TR's. (Jump to the next CH space and work 3 x TR's) repeat to end and SS to join. You will now have 8 clusters, a point, 8 clusters and a point)
- From now on work each round, working 3 x TR's into every chain space, but into each point work 3 X TR's, 3 x CH, 3 x TR's to form the point for another 15 rounds.
- To finish off the neckline, join yarn to any CH space and CH 2, work 2 x DC's into the same space. Then work 3 x DC's into each CH space around and SS to finish.
- Add tassels if required by cutting 3 x 5" lengths of yarn, hold them together and fold them in half, hook through a CH space on the bottom row and pull the yarn through the loop. Pull quite tight to secure.

Cosy & colourful for the winter!
